

Swiss Federation (SR 161.11, VPR)

Decree on the political rights of 24 May 1978 (as of September 1, 2009)

The Swiss federal council, based on Art. 91 para 1 of the federal law on political rights (Law, BPR) enacts:

1. Section: Right to vote and casting the ballot

Art. 1 Political residence

A political place of residence that differs from the civil place of residence may in specific be granted to:

- a. wards;
- b. weekday residents, in particular students;
- c. spouses, who with the consent of the spouse, on judicial warrant or through direct legislative power, with the intention of permanently remaining, dwell outside the joint household.

Art. 2 Change of political residence

Whoever during the last four weeks before a federal ballot changes the political place of residence, will receive the voting papers at the new place of residence only upon proof that he or she has not already exercised the right to vote at the previous political residence.

Art. 2a Voting dates

- a. In those years when Easter Sunday falls on a date after April 10, the second Sunday in February, in the remaining years the fourth last Sunday before Easter;
- b. In those years in which the Pentecoste Sunday falls on a date after the Mai 28th, the third Sunday in May, in the remaining years the third Sunday after Pentecoste;
- c. The Sunday after the federal Thanksgiving-, Penitence- and Prayerday;
- d. The last Sunday in November.

² On compelling reasons, the federal chancellery requests the federal government to consult with the cantons on the displacement of individual or the adoption of additional voting dates.

³ In the year of the renewal elections of the National Council, no ballots shall be held in September.

⁴ The federal chancellery shall publish the reserved voting data by latest by June of the previous Year.

Art. 2b Preliminary delivery of voting papers

The cantons shall ensure that the competent authorities according to cantonal law deliver the voting papers to Swiss expatriates and following a specific request to other voters staying abroad at least one week before the official mailing takes place.

2. Section: Ballots

Art. 3 Preparation

¹ The federal chancellery orders the for the implementation of the vote according to the statutory requirements necessary measures.

² It develops, in co-operation with the competent department, the explanations and submits them to the federal council for approval.

Art. 4 Voting protocol

² The cantons may obtain the forms at the federal chancellery at cost price.

³ The federal chancellery determines when the records must be destroyed.

Art. 5 Notification of the provisional cantonal results

¹ The cantonal government orders the according to cantonal law competent offices (municipality-, county- or district authorities), to report the voting results to the cantonal central office immediately by telephone, fax or other appropriate forms of electronic communication.

² The cantonal central office reports the preliminary cantonal results not later than 18.00h via fax, telex or if necessary by phone to the federal chancellery.

⁴ The report of the voting results includes

- a. the number of yes and no votes;
- b. the cantonal percentage of voter's participation;
- c. for people's initiatives and counter-proposals for all three questions the number of votes, which were entered in the voting protocol in the category "without answer" and in the deciding question the number of votes for the people's initiative and for the counter-proposal.

Art. 6 Publication of the cantonal results

The cantonal government publishes the contents of the voting protocol without their comments and decisions immediately in the cantonal government gazette. It mentions the opportunity to appeal under Article 77 of the act.

3rd Section: Election of the National Council

Art. 6a Distribution of seats of the national council

The distribution of seats of the National Council among the cantons is based on the proportion of the permanent resident population in Switzerland pursuant to Article 19 lit. a of the census regulation of 19th December 2008.

Art. 7 Design of pre-printed ballot cards

Pre-printed ballot cards should leave enough free space to enable the electorate to legibly accumulate and split votes.

Art. 7a Cantonal Electoral Office

The cantonal government shall adopt the dispositions necessary for the ordering and implementation of the national council elections. It determines the official authority supervising the election, receiving and adjusting the nominations and compiling the election results (cantonal election office).

Art. 8 Forms

² The cantons may obtain counting forms at the federal chancellery at cost price.

³ The federal council may permit a canton submitting a justified request to amend the forms. The request must be made by first of January of the election year. Forms previously approved by the federal council require no further approval.

Art. 8a Election registration deadline

² No reports are required from cantons with only one seat in the national council and not practicing silent election.

Art. 8b Contents and signing of the nomination

- ¹ Nominations must include at least the information specified in the standard form (Annex 3a).
- ² By signing the nomination (Article 24 para 1 of the Act) the candidates who have their political residency in the constituency, declare at the same time their consent to their nomination (Article 22 para 3 of the Act).
- ³ The name of a voter who signed several nominations shall be deleted immediately from all nominations by the canton.

Art. 8c Several lists of the same designation

- ¹ A grouping may submit multiple nominations under the same designation, which must differ from each other by a suffix.
- ² Lists of the same group may form compound lists with each other, if the distinctive suffix refers to sex, the age, the wing of the group or the region.
- ³ As far as the distinguishing characteristic does not relate to regional divisions of lists, the group nominates a list as a master list.

Art. 8 d Adjustment procedures for nominations

- ¹ The competent offices of the reporting cantons shall convey a copy of all nominations to the federal chancellery not later than on the day after the nomination deadline.
- ² The federal chancellery leaves multiple nominated candidates on the nomination, which arrives first at their offices.
- ³ The federal chancellery reports deletions to the canton within 72 hours from arrival of its nominations electronically or by fax.
- ⁴ The canton shall provide the federal chancellery at the latest within 24 hours after the adjustment period with a copy of each list. It denotes the lists as adjusted.

Art. 8e Statements on compound lists and sublists

- ¹ Statements on compound lists and sublists have to include at least the information on the model form (Annex 3b).
- ² Indicative for the validity of compound lists and sublists is the date on which the relevant statement arrives at the competent cantonal department.

Art. 9 Reporting to the cantonal election office

- ¹ The municipal election offices forward the election protocols together with other auxiliary forms and the ballot cards immediately after compilation to the cantonal electoral office.
- ² The ballot cards shall be packaged and sealed, as they have been sorted during counting.

Art. 10 Distribution of seats

The cantonal elections office determines immediately the results of the constituency and the distribution of seats.

Art. 11 Recount

If it is suspected that a municipality result is incorrect, then the cantonal electoral office, either recounts by themselves or orders a recount by municipal election office.

Art. 12 Compilation of the cantonal election results

- ¹ The cantonal election office renders a protocol on the election results in duplicate. This has to comply for all constituencies with proportional representation in content and arrangement with Form 5 in the Annex 2.
- ² In the minutes, of each party list the names of the elected and unelected candidates shall be listed in the order of votes obtained. The candidates shall be designated by first- and surname, year of birth, place of origin, place of residence and occupation.

Art. 13 Publication of the results

¹ The cantonal government publishes the contents of the election protocol without their comments and decisions immediately in the cantonal government gazette. It indicates the opportunity to appeal under Article 77 of the Act.

² It notifies the elected and the federal council in writing of the preliminary election results.

³ It shall provide the federal chancellery immediately with an unsigned copy of the election protocol.

Art. 14 Transmission of the election protocol to the federal council

¹ After the expiry of the appeal period, the cantonal government conveys the protocol of the cantonal election office, a copy of the government gazette and where applicable complaints and its commentary to the federal council.

² It shall send, within ten days after the appeal period, the forms 1-4 according to annex 2 and all ballot cards to the federal office of statistics. The ballot cards shall be packed separately by municipalities.

Art. 15 Resignation and moving up

² The cantonal government conveys the names of deputies declared as elected without delay to the federal chancellery and the secretariat of the federal assembly to the attention of the chairman of the national council and publishes them in the cantonal government gazette.

Art. 16 By-elections

In by-elections (Article 56 para 1 of the act), the cantonal government invites the representative of the list entitled for the seat to submit a nomination within 30 days. To this end, he shall be supplied with a copy of the original list of candidates, including the names and addresses of all signatories.

Art. 17 Additional instructions

Before every general election, the federal council shall issue a circular letter containing additional instructions, especially concerning reporting, designing, sorting and adjusting the ballot cards, filling out the forms and determining the results by municipality.

4th Section: ReferendumArt. 18 Samples

At the federal chancellery, samples of a list of signatures in each official language may be obtained free of charge.

Art. 18 a Signing for voters incapable of writing

Voters signing a referendum for voters incapable to write, complete the person's particulars in the signature list. Under the heading "handwritten signature" they write in block letters, along with the notice "in order / i.o." their own name, and include their own signature.

Art. 19 certificate of eligibility

² If this authority refuses the certificate of eligibility, it justifies this by one of the following keywords:

- a. illegible;
- b. not identifiable;
- c. signed several times;
- d. of the same hand;
- e. not handwritten;
- f. not in the electoral register;
- g. handwritten signature is missing;
- h. incorrect date of birth.

³ The authority indicates on any list or in the certificate, the total number of valid and invalid signatures.

⁵ The federal chancellery shall issue directives for the certificate in accordance with Art. 62 para 4 of the act.

⁶ The office maintains the secrecy of the vote.

Art. 20 Submission

¹ The signature lists shall be submitted separated by the canton to the federal chancellery

² If the collection period expires on a Saturday, Sunday or a recognized holiday, the referendum may still be submitted during office hours of the next working day.

Art. 21 Examination of the accomplishment

For the determination of accomplishment, the federal chancellery in particular examines, whether the submitted signature lists fulfil the statutory requirements and whether the voting certificates were duly presented.

Art. 22

5. Section: Popular initiative

Art. 23 Preliminary checks

¹ If the authors submit the initiative in more than one of several official languages, they must inform the federal chancellery, which version is authoritative for adjusting the text.

² If they submit the initiative in one official language only, the federal chancellery shall translate it, as soon as the initiators have declared the text as final.

³ All the authors of the initiative confirm to the federal chancellery by handwritten signature their membership in the initiative committee. The relevant forms may be obtained without charge at the federal chancellery.

^{3bis} If the draft of the signature list contains more names than the initiative committee should include, the federal chancellery deletes the last names.

⁴ The federal chancellery publishes in the ordinance on the preliminary investigation also the names and addresses of all authors of the initiative in the federal government gazette. If the authors request a translation of the initiative into Romansh, this text shall be published in the german language issue of the federal government gazette.

Art. 24

Art. 25 Withdrawal

¹ Before the federal council holds the ballot, the federal chancellery shall issue the initiative committee with a draft declaration of withdrawal, including a section for the signatures required. With the invitation to decide on a withdrawal, they are given a deadline of ten days to obtain all necessary signatures from the members of the initiative committee. The withdrawal declaration shall correspond to the template in Annex 4 of this regulation.

² The withdrawal statement and the signatures must be submitted on time at the federal chancellery.

³ The withdrawal shall be published in the federal government gazette.

Art. 26 Supplementary Provisions

The 4th Section of this regulation shall apply by analogy to the popular initiative.

6th Section: ...

Art. 27

Section 6a: Tests with electronic voting

Art. 27a Tests with electronic voting in referendums and elections

- ¹ Tests with electronic voting in referenda and elections require approval of the federal council.
- ² Electronic voting in referendums and elections is only permissible when provided for all ballots on the same voting date within the designated communities.
- ³ Cantons carrying out such tests may, when necessary, deviate from the rules concerning postal voting or casting ballots.
- ⁴ Voting by proxy is prohibited.

Art. 27b Application

- ¹ The application for approval of an individual test must include:
- evidence that the test can be carried out under the provisions of federal law;
 - the cantonal regulations adopted for this purpose.
- ² The application for approval of several successive tests must additionally include the confirmation that the canton carried out at least five consecutive fail-free tests in federal ballots.

Art. 27c Content of approval

- ¹ With the approval, the federal council also authorizes the deviations from the provisions of the act and specifies:
- for which federal elections or referenda electronic voting is permitted;
 - within which period of time electronic ballots shall be allowed;
 - for which municipalities the ballot results from the test have legally binding effects.
- ² The federal council shall ensure that no test concerns more than 10 percent of the Swiss federal electorate. In mandatory referendums, in which also the majority of the cantons is crucial, no more than 20 percent of the respectively concerned cantonal electorate may use electronic voting; in calculating the proportion the Swiss abroad shall not be counted.
- ³ If a canton has performed at least five consecutive fail-free tests in federal ballots, the federal council may authorize this canton to use electronic voting in federal referendums and timewise, factual, and locally limited for a certain period of time, as long as the system is not materially is changed in technical or organizational terms.

Art. 27d Conditions of approval

- ¹ The federal council shall grant approval only if the requirements under Articles 27d -27p are satisfied. In particular must be ensured that:
- only people entitled to vote may cast a ballot (control of the voting rights);
 - every person entitled to vote has only one vote and may only vote once (singularity of the ballot);
 - third parties do not systematically and effectually intercept, alter or redirect electronic votes (reliable rendering of unadulterated expression of will);
 - third parties may not get to know the content of electronic ballots (secrecy of the vote);
 - all votes cast are included in determining the results (Trustworthiness of results);
 - every systematic abuse can be excluded (rule conformity of the ballot).
- ² For experiments with access code, access authorization or electronic signature, the federal council grants approval only upon ensuring that:
- third parties may not systematically intercept, alter or divert access code, access authorization or electronic signature
 - third parties cannot systematically abuse access code, access authorization or electronic signature;

c. the security concept excludes any danger of targeted and systematic abuse.

³ In addition, the federal council grants approval only if the Canton proves that he has a practicable concept with regard to technical, financial and organizational measures for carrying out the tests and that he informs the electorate intelligibly on organization, technology and procedures of electronic voting.

Art. 27e Protection of public opinion and voting from manipulation

² Before casting their vote, the voters must be specifically made aware that by submitting the electronic vote they participate in an authorized ballot.

³ Before casting the ballot, the person entitled to vote must confirm that he or she took note of this message.

⁴ Systematic manipulative advertisements on the device used during the voting process must be prevented.

⁵ Up to the moment of finalizing their ballot, the voters must have the opportunity to correct or to cancel the vote.

⁶ Transmittal of the input must be visible for the voter on the device used.

⁷ The data must be transmitted encrypted, to prevent changed data from entering the voting process.

⁸ The voters shall receive the necessary information to ascertain the authenticity of the internet site and the server used to vote.

Art. 27ebis Disabled persons

The technical implementation shall consider the needs of voters with disabilities, especially with visual impairments, as far as the safety and the secrecy of the vote are not restricted.

Art. 27f Encryption

¹ Measures to safeguard the secrecy of the vote must ensure that electronic votes reach the competent authorities anonymised and cannot be traced back.

² The transmission, checking of voting rights, registration of the vote in the electoral register and casting of the vote into the electronic ballot box must be organized in such a manner that at no time a vote may be assigned to a voter.

³ The votes must be encrypted at the beginning of the transmission of votes in the voter's device used to cast the ballot. They may only be transmitted encrypted. The transmission method must render it impossible that voting data is deliberately or systematically being stolen or decoded.

⁴ The data for the control of voting rights may not allow direct identification of the voter. It shall be designed to allow the competent authority to ensure that the voter casts only one single vote.

⁵ Votes cast may only be decrypted while counting, until then they shall be stored in encrypted form in the electronic ballot box.

Art. 27g Secrecy of the vote

² Processings in connection with electronic voting must be clearly separated from all other applications.

³ During the opening hours of the electronic ballot box, any access to the system or one of its components shall be carried out by at least two people; it must be recorded and controlled by a representative of the competent authority.

⁴ All necessary measures must be taken to ensure that no information which is needed for electronic processing, may be used for a violation of the secrecy of the vote.

Art. 27h Further measures to safeguard the secrecy of the vote

¹ During the voting process, extraneous access to the media used as a server for ballots and as an electronic ballot box must be excluded.

² Votes cast must be stored anonymously in the electronic ballot box. The arrangement of the stored votes may not allow conclusions on the order of votes received.

³ The instructions must inform about how the vote can be deleted on all storage units of the device used for the ballot.

⁴ On the device used for the ballot, the vote shall be blinded out immediately after transmitting the vote. The software used for the ballot shall not allow making hardcopies of the vote cast.

Art. 27i Control of voting rights

Before casting an electronic vote, the voter has to prove to the competent authority that he or she is entitled to vote.

Art. 27j Singularity of the vote

The voter must only be allowed to vote when it can be eliminated that he or she had already voted.

Art. 27 k Data safety of votes cast

Technical measures must guarantee that when systems malfunction or fail, no vote cast is irretrievably lost. The processes must be verifiable and the counting of voting legitimations and votes cast remain possible.

Art. 27l Technical status

² The fulfillment of safety requirements and the functionality of the electronic election- and voting system must be certified by an independent body recognized by the Federal Chancellery. This requirement applies for any change to the system.

³ Ballot box and ballot server have to be protected from any attack. Access rights to voting data and physical access to the equipment may only be granted to authorized persons

- a. to review the voting rights;
- b. to test for multiple voting;
- c. to register a ballot cast;
- d. to store the persons eligible to vote.

Art. 27m Analysis of the result

¹ Prior to the closing of the electronic ballot box no interim results may be levied.

² After the completion of the electronic ballot the encrypted votes shall be immediately decrypted according to the cantonal regulations. Then they shall be enumerated. The electronic counting must be accessible by a representation of the voters.

³ After counting they shall be added to the votes cast by other means.

⁴ A journal shall be kept about the counting of electronic votes.

⁵ The results may not be reproduced in such detail that the content of the vote can be concluded.

Art. 27n Fixing of breakdowns

If irregularities occur, it must be possible to determine the number of defective electronic ballots and to recount them in order to correct the defective result.

Art. 27n bis Plausibility of electronic results

If the result of a ballot is questioned, it must be possible to check the electronic results for plausibility. Under constant maintenance of the secrecy of the vote the following measures shall be allowed:

- a. review of the test votes cast by inspectors;
- b. comparing the proportion of yes and no votes respectively their different percentages between the postal voting, the electronic voting and the voting at the ballot box;
- c. comparison of the electronic votes counted with the protocol files (log files) of the ballot server.

Art. 27o Scientific support

¹ The federal council may collect data on the use of electronic voting and have the tests scientifically accompanied.

² If the federal council adopted the scientific monitoring of a test, the federal chancellery lays down the further requirements, in particular the cost- and research objectives of additional scientific research on the sociographic composition of the participants in the tests with electronic voting.

³ It ensures in particular that tests with electronic voting are checked for their effectiveness, including the development of voter participation and the impact on voting habits, and guarantees the consistency of the inspections.

⁴ after each ballot, the canton shall provide the federal chancellery with statistic information about on which days how many electronic votes have been cast.

Art. 27 pArt. 27q Tests on signing federal petitions electronically

¹ The federal council grants approval for tests on signing of federal petitions by electronic means under the assumption that the control of voting rights, the secrecy of the vote and the correct allocation of all signatures are maintained and any danger of deliberate or systematic abuse can be excluded.

² Articles 27a-27p apply analogously.

7th Section: Final ProvisionsArt. 28 Authorization of cantonal implementing regulations

¹ Cantonal implementing regulations for federal legislation which are subject to a referendum shall be submitted to the federal chancellery after the holding the referendum or the unused expiry of the referendum deadline; those which are not subject to a referendum shall be submitted after enactment by the competent cantonal authority.

² In non-contentious cases, they are approved by the federal chancellery.

Art 28a Amendments to existing legislation

The regulation of August 25, 1976 on the political rights of the Swiss abroad is amended as follows:

Art. 4 Abs. 2

Article 29 Repeal of previous legislation

The following acts shall be repealed:

¹. Regulation of May 2nd, 1879 on referendi, federal acts and federal decisions and the amendment of the federal constitution;

². the implementing ordinance of July 8, 1919 on the election of the National Council;

³. The ordinance of the federal council of December 10, 1945 on the involvement of army staff in federal, cantonal and municipal ballots.

Article 30 Entry into force

This Regulation shall enter into force on July 1st, 1978.

Final provisions of the amendment of February 26, 1997.

* Unter dieser Rubrik sind eine Person, die den Wahlvorschlag vertritt, sowie deren Stellvertretung zu bezeichnen. Diese sind gegenüber den zuständigen Amtsstellen von Kanton und Bund berechtigt und verpflichtet, allenfalls nötige Erklärungen zur Bereinigung von Anständen oder Unklarheiten im Namen aller Unterzeichnenden rechtsverbindlich abzugeben (BPR Art. 25 Abs. 2). Wo eine klare Bezeichnung fehlt, kommt diese Aufgabe der erst- und der zweitunterzeichnenden Person zu.

* Mentionner sous cette rubrique le nom du mandataire des signataires et celui de son suppléant. Ces deux personnes ont, vis-à-vis de l'office cantonal compétent et de la Confédération, le droit et l'obligation de donner s'il le faut, au nom des signataires de la liste et de manière à les lier juridiquement, toutes les indications permettant d'éliminer les difficultés qui pourraient se produire (art. 25, 2e al., LDP). Si ces mentions font défaut, cette tâche incombe au premier et au deuxième signataires.

* In questa rubrica devono essere designati il rappresentante e il suo sostituto che davanti agli uffici cantonali e federali competenti hanno il diritto e il dovere di fare validamente in nome dei firmatari, le dichiarazioni necessarie a togliere le difficoltà che potessero sorgere (art. 25 cpv. 2 LDP). In caso di non chiara indicazione, per legge si riterrà rappresentante il primo firmatario e sostituto il secondo.

 * Falls sich die Partei im Parteiregister der Bundeskanzlei hat eintragen lassen, ist unter der Rubrik «Bemerkungen» zur Überprüfung die präzise Fundstelle im Internet anzugeben. Falls die Partei im Kanton einen einzigen Wahlvorschlag einreicht, genügen in diesem Falle die Unterschriften jener Personen, welche das Präsidium und das Sekretariat der Kantonalpartei ausüben; das kantonale Unterschriftenquorum entfällt.

* Le parti politique qui s'est fait enregistrer dans le registre des partis de la Chancellerie fédérale indiquera ici son adresse Internet précise pour vérification. Si le parti ne dépose qu'une seule liste de candidats dans le canton, les signatures du président et du secrétaire du parti cantonal suffiront. Le quorum cantonal sera donc sans objet.

* Se il partito si è fatto iscrivere nel registro dei partiti della Cancelleria federale, nella rubrica «Osservazioni» deve essere indicato per verifica il suo indirizzo Internet esatto. Se il partito presenta inoltre una sola proposta nel Cantone, basta la firma delle persone preposte alla presidenza e alla segreteria del partito cantonale; l'obbligo di far firmare la proposta da un numero minimo di elettori con domicilio politico nel circondario elettorale decade.
